Liam McCusker to Lose it all in the World's Greatest Shave

Donate to support the Leukaemia Foundation (and help us wipe that smirk off Liam's face!)

To kick off DW Fox Tucker's new partnership with the Leukaemia Foundation, one of our very own directors, Liam McCusker, has volunteered to participate in the World's Greatest Shave - if we can raise $1,500 for the Leukaemia Foundation before Friday 18 March!

Time is short, so if you would like to see Liam shave his luscious locks you can donate via the following link:

Today, 34 Australians will be given the devastating news that they have blood cancer, and they'll turn to the Leukaemia Foundation for help.

Getting sponsored to shave your hair is an extraordinary way to help people with leukaemia, lymphoma and myeloma, but we need your help.

Please sponsor Liam in the World's Greatest Shave and help support families and continue the urgent search for cures.

Your donations will go towards blood cancer research which is needed urgently to find better treatments and cures, as well as supporting families with practical and emotional support during their long and gruelling treatment.

We are proud of DW Fox Tucker's partnership with the Leukaemia Foundation and the contribution we can make to the lives of people affected by blood cancers and blood disorders.

If you would like to know more about the Leukaemia Foundation and the fantastic work they do, please visit their website via this link:

In the event we reach our goal of raising $1,500 by Friday 18 March, our staff will be congregating in our boardroom at 5pm to witness Liam's head being shaved.

If we don't manage to reach our goal, Liam will keep his hair - however, DW Fox Tucker's Charity Committee will match whatever amount we have raised to assist the Leukaemia Foundation with their ongoing research and support of families affected.
