DW Fox Tucker's Managing Director and the head of the dispute resolution & insolvency team, Joe De Ruvo, praised Helene's tireless work ethic, legal acumen, commitment to client satisfaction and leadership qualities, saying, "Helene's promotion is well-earned. On a personal level, she has been a tremendous support to me, and I have watched on with great pride as she has developed into a strong and effective leader at our firm. She exhibits all the qualities an outstanding leader needs, but I have found her passion and commitment to building a high-performance environment most impressive. She leads by example, generously shares her knowledge and invests considerable time in building strong relationships with our staff and clients. I had no hesitation in supporting her promotion and have full confidence that Helene will continue to excel in her new role and contribute to our firm's continued growth and success."
